

State of Kentucky }
Madison County } ss.

(1832)

On this 13th day of August 1832 ^{appeared} personally in open Court before Sa^{id} Magistrate William Gordon & Henry Dillon Justices of the County Court in & for the County of Madison aforesaid, now sitting Thomas Todd, aged 72 years, a resident of said Madison County, who being first duly sworn according to law & then on his oath made the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7. 1832 - That he entered into the service of the United States under the following named officers & served in said State - That in June 1777, the 3^d day of the month, he thinks, it was the day he was 17 years of age, he enlisted in Rowan County State of North Carolina in the 4th Regiment of N. C. Troops on Continental establishment. for nine months - under Capt David Cowan - General Simms was then in command - he marched at first towards the Virginia line to a place called Moon's Creek - then then marched to Charleston or to the ten mile House thence then to Moon's Bridge then to Savannah - was at the Stone Battle - that he continued